This map shows boundaries of the Latin Rite dioceses whose bishops belong to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). Archdioceses are indicated by capital letters and Ecclesiastical Provinces are grouped by color. USCCB regions are shown within maroon lines and indicated by Roman numerals. Dashed lines show where dioceses cross state lines. This map does not show the Diocese of St. Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands, which is part of the Ecclesiastical Province of Washington, or the Archdiocese for the Military Services.

"Here, like the Apostle Saint Thomas, you are granted the opportunity to "touch" the historical realities which underlie our confession of faith in the Son of God."

Pope Benedict XVI celebrates first ever Mass in Jerusalem at the Garden of Gethsemane.

Under the Guest House Program at St. John Vianney, men and women in religious life who suffer from co-occurring addictive and psychiatric disorders will be able to receive treatment at the same time and in the same place. In the past, dual diagnosis issues were dealt with by treating each difficulty separately. When a person is treated separately for their addiction and their psychiatric issues, they are often given conflicting information that produces poor results. This program addresses these concerns by treating each issue simultaneously and is designed to treat the whole person – physically, mentally and spiritually.
